Volunteers needed

Thank you for all those parents who have offered their support to the school. Help is also needed on school trips and in the school library. If you feel this is something you could help us with please inform the school office.

Sporting Achievement

Congratulations to our girls football teams who played some really skillfull football against some tough opposition. Our Year 3 & 4 team are through to the next stage. Also a big well done to our Cross Country runners , 15 of who have progresses to the Breckland final.

Remembrance Poppies

Poppies are on sale in the school office. They will also be brought around to the classes daily for the children to purchase for themselves.
