

Identity Book List - EYFS and KS1

My Skin Your Skin by Laura Henry-Allain MBE

A powerful book that will help children and adults have meaningful discussions about race and anti-racism. Most importantly, the book empowers children to be the best version of themselves-to have self-love, self-esteem and self-worth, irrespective of their skin colour.

Lovely by Jess Hong

A celebration of diversity - in all its shapes and sizes! Big, small, curly, straight, loud, quiet, smooth, wrinkly - we are all LOVELY! Colourful, bold illustrations and simple text.

Sunflower Sisters by Monika Singh Gangotra and Michaela Dias-Hayes

An uplifting and empowering book about colourism and sisterhood

Julian is a Mermaid by Jessica Love

A glimpse of three women dressed as mermaids leaves one boy filled with wonder and ready to dazzle the world.

Eyes that Kiss in the Corners by Joanna Ho

A young Asian girl notices that her eyes look different from her peers'. They have big, round eyes and long lashes. She realizes that her eyes are like her mother's, her grandmother's, and her little sister's. They have eyes that kiss in the corners and glow like warm tea, crinkle into crescent moons, and are filled with stories of the past and hope for the future. Drawing from the strength of these powerful women in her life, she recognizes her own beauty and discovers a path to self-love and empowerment.

I am Whole by Shola Oz

I Am Whole is a delightful picture book to celebrate children of mixed backgrounds and cultures. Written with love to embrace the differences that come with being multi-racial, including language, family and cultural traditions. This book encourages children to embrace their diversity and recognise that such differences make us whole. A fun rhythmic read aimed at children aged 0-7.

The Name Jar by Yangsook Choi

A heart-warming story about the new girl in school, and how she learns to appreciate her Korean name.

What If We Were All The Same!: A Children's Book About Ethnic Diversity and Inclusion by C.M. Harris

What If We Were All The Same! is an inspirational and warm celebration of the differences in all living things. Her story sends an important message to kids who often want to be just like everyone else...Each panel is brightly coloured and upbeat and works perfectly with the story. This is a grand selection for story-time and offers teachers and caregivers opportunities to have kids weigh in on how their differences make them special in after-story-time discussions.

In Every House, on Every Street by Jess Hitchman

A heart-warming celebration of homes . . .
and all the families that make them

Bodies Are Cool: A picture book celebration of all kinds of bodies by Tyler Feder

This body positive picture book is a vibrant, joyful, and judgement-free celebration of every body shape and size.

Find Out About: Standing Up to Racism by Dr Pragya Agarwal

An introduction to standing up to racism for young children and their families, with flaps to lift.

I Love My Mama's Hijab by Razaida Bahram and Asbah Alaena

For every little child who admires their Mama is this book right here. The second book in the 'I love...' series by Noor Nursery explores the endearing relationship between a mother and her hijab, and the positive effect it has on the children. Get ready to be a part of this sweet and delightful story with you and your infants.

Errol's Garden by Gillian Hibbs

Errol loves gardening, but he doesn't have a proper garden. Although his home is full of beautiful plants, he longs for an outdoor space where he can grow things. A chance discovery leads to a solution, but Errol can't do everything on his own. Luckily, help is near at hand. A heart-warming and inclusive tale about how one small boy's dream of a garden unites a diverse community in a positive and enriching experience for everyone.